Rose Bruford Theater Arts College: 2006 - 2008. Taught by David Hunt, Tony James, and Lucy Harrison.

With our final grades, we weren't marked with scores such as A - F but remarked on as a whole class and individually.

Class: Together our class came top, coming first of the other classes. It was very flattering and honored that our tutor's remark was that we were "the best performance of the year."

Individually: Individually my teachers said they had nothing negative to say, just a couple of improvements such as I had "continually improved" throughout the terms; my main goal was that I needed to work on staying loud, not quieten down in a performance and stay in character if something goes wrong while on stage.

I received high remarks and they said I can only do better with practice and life experience.
