Rose Bruford College: Master of Fine Arts – MFA, Theatre Arts. 2006 - 2008. Taught by David Hunt, Tony James, and Lucy Harrison. Remarkable as a whole class and individually.

Class: Together our class came top, coming first of the other classes. It was very flattering and honoured that our tutor's remark was that we were "the best performance of the year."

Individually: Individually my teachers said they had nothing negative to say, just a couple of improvements such as I had "continually improved" throughout the terms; my main goal was that I needed to work on staying loud, not quieten down in a performance and stay in character if something goes wrong while on stage.

I received high remarks and they said I can only do better with practice and life experience.

Stage fighting training:

Fight Training: Stage Combat - On set personal professional stage fighting tutors in boxing and self-defense. January 2024
